Director-at-Large – Brent Buchan

Brent brings 25 years of experience in progressive business leadership, consulting and sales with major professional services and technology firms in Canada and the USA. He has experience managing both advisory delivery and sales teams working with corporate and public sector clients.

He is currently working with Digital Technology Transformation initiatives for enterprise Health Care clients in B.C. Brent has held previous roles as Director, Technology Consulting-PwC, Director Sales Public Sector-TELUS and GM-Xerox Global Services. His work and personal experience have covered all corners of British Columbia, giving him a strong understanding of both urban and rural communities in the province. Brent also has extensive experience in facilitation and training, having worked at Xerox's international training centre in Virginia, USA.

Brent brings to the Board strong operational execution, planning and negotiation skills to support the Society's strategy and direction. Brent successfully completed the Director Education program at the Institute of Corporate Directors and graduated from the University of British Columbia with a Bachelor of Commerce degree with a focus on finance and industrial relations.

Brent has worked with multiple Alzheimer Society of B.C. volunteer fundraising event roles, is currently a member of the Forget Me Not Golf Committee and the Board's Finance Committee.
