On This Date

1910 – Led by Francisco Madero, Mexican dissidents revolted against their president, Porfirio Díaz. The following year, Madero and his cohort ousted Diaz from power permanently.

1947 – Princess Elizabeth married Phillip Mountbatten, Duke of Edinburgh. They became queen and king of the British Commonwealth in 1952.

1983 – At the Cold War's zenith, ABC aired The Day After, a graphic made-for-TV film about the aftermath of a nuclear strike on a Kansas family. With a Nielsen share of 62 percent, it is one of the most-watched made-for-TV movies ever aired.

Did You Know?

In 1962, Ontarian chef Sam Panopoulos introduced a new pizza topping option at his restaurant. Riffing off the sweet and sour flavor profiles common in Chinese cuisine, he added canned pineapple. It became known as Hawaiian pizza—based on the canned pineapple brand he used.

Quote of the Day

"Mulan holds a very special place in my heart. Hordes of fans still come up and tell me how much she means to them."

~ Ming-Na Wen

Happy Birthday!

Ming-Na Wen, born in 1963, is a celebrated American actress who first gained prominence with her role as June Woo in the film adaptation of The Joy Luck Club (1993). She is best known, however, for her role as Fa Mulan in Disney's Mulan (1998) and Mulan II (2004), a character beloved by audiences worldwide. The versatile Wen also plays Dr. Deb Chen in the medical drama ER, Agent Melinda May in Marvel's Agents of S.H.I.E.L.D., and the mysterious assassin Fennec Shand in several critically acclaimed Star Wars television series. In 2022, Wen made guest appearances on the popular television shows Young Sheldon and Hacks.
