

THE DAILY CHRONICLE

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 26, 2026

On This Date

1815 – Following Napoleon’s defeat, Russia, Austria, and Prussia came together as the Holy Alliance. This loose alliance of nations promoted Christian principles in national affairs and is thought to have given rise to conservatism.

1904 – Earl Grey was named as the British governor general of Canada. During his eight years in office, he oversaw Canada’s increased economic development and industrialization, and he and his wife, Alice, championed many social reforms.

1950 – In the aftermath of the Chinchaga Fire, Englishmen reported viewing a blue moon due to residual smoke from the fire. It is the single-largest recorded fire in North American history, burning nearly four billion acres in Alberta and British Columbia.

Televised presidential debates draw about as many viewers as the Super Bowl.

Quote of the Day

“The success of every woman should be the inspiration to another.”

~ Serena Williams

Happy Birthday!

Serena Williams, born in 1981, is a tennis legend and one of the greatest athletes of all time. Williams began playing tennis at a young age, quickly rising through the ranks with her sister, Venus, to become a dominant force in the sport. She has won an astounding 23 Grand Slam titles and four Olympic gold medals, and she is the highest-earning female athlete of all time. In 2022, Williams announced her “evolution” away from tennis to focus on the Serena Williams Foundation, her business ventures, and her young family with husband Alexis Ohanian. In 2026, Williams returned to professional tennis, where she continues to inspire the next generation.
