On This Date

1935 – Ifrane, Morocco, experienced the lowest temperature ever recorded in Africa: -24°C (-11°F). Located in the Atlas Mountains, Ifrane is often called “Little Switzerland” due to its alpine climate and snowy winters.

1945 – The Yalta Conference closed after leaders Franklin D. Roosevelt, Winston Churchill, and Joseph Stalin met to discuss the postwar reorganization of Europe and strategies to defeat Nazi Germany.

1975 – Margaret Thatcher made history by becoming the first female leader of the UK Conservative Party.

This breakthrough paved the way for her to become Britain’s first female prime minister in 1979.

Doggone Good Trivia

Cheetahs can sprint up to 70 mph for short distances, but greyhounds can sustain speeds of 40–45 mph over longer distances. In a longer race between the two, smart money is on the greyhound.

Quote of the Day

“There are no regrets in life, just lessons.”
