

Conference Program

Soci   Alzheimer Society
NOVA SCOTIA

Navigating Dementia
Today and Tomorrow

ASNS Provincial Conference: October 25, 2022

8:00 a.m.	Doors Open
8:30 a.m.	Welcome and Opening Remarks The Honourable Barbara Adams, Minister of Seniors and Long-term Care
8:40 a.m.	Landmark Study: The Path Forward for Dementia in Canada Keynote Speaker Dr. Joshua J. Armstrong, Alzheimer Society of Canada
9:30 a.m.	Dementia in Nova Scotia: What Does the Landmark Study Mean for Us? Dr. Melissa K. Andrew, Dr. Shanna Trenaman, Dalhousie University, & Brian Wallace
10:30 a.m.	Nutrition Break
10:45 a.m.	Innovation in the Midst of COVID-19 Glenda Keenan & Wendy Wierstra, Nova Scotia Health Continuing Care
11:45 a.m.	The Future of Dementia Care in Nova Scotia: It Takes a Village John Britton, CEO, ASNS
12:00 p.m.	Lunch Break & Artful Afternoon Exhibit
12:45 p.m.	Loneliness and Dementia Dr. Alethea Lacas, Dalhousie University
1:15 p.m.	Supporting People with Behavioural Expressions of Dementia Karine Smith & Mary Stanley, Nova Scotia Health
2:00 p.m.	Promising Practices Showcase Jennifer Ripley, Victoria County Home Support Services Charlotte Sabeau & Rachel Skanes, Digby General Hospital Charlotte Stevens-LeBlanc, Villa Saint-Joseph du Lac
2:45 p.m.	Pilates Movement Break with Anna Townsend
3:00 p.m.	Reframing "Wandering": Strategies to Mitigate Risk while Preserving Autonomy Catherine-Anne Murray, Nova Scotia Health
3:30 p.m.	Charting the Course to a Dementia Friendly Nova Scotia Pamela Fancey, Nova Scotia Centre on Aging Beth House, DFC Lead, ASNS
4:15 p.m.	Closing Remarks

Learn more and register today at www.alzheimer.ca/ns/conference