

THE DAILY CHRONICLE

MONDAY, JANUARY 11, 2021

On This Date

1878 – In New York, milk was delivered for the first time in glass bottles. Up to that time, the milkman had ladled it out of his container directly into the customer’s container.

1922 – At Toronto General Hospital, 14-year-old Leonard Thompson became the first person to receive an insulin injection as treatment for diabetes. His condition improved dramatically, and pharmaceutical companies were given the license to produce the remedy free of royalties. By 1923, insulin had become widely available, saving countless lives around the world.

Did You Know?

Although he lived a full life, Carroll Shelby suffered from heart problems since childhood. He established the Carroll Shelby Children’s Foundation to cover medical bills of children who have heart disease but are unable to pay for treatment.

Daily Humor

“I’ve always been asked, ‘What is my favorite car?’ and I’ve always said, ‘The next one.’”

~ Carroll Shelby

Happy Birthday!

Carroll Shelby (1923–2012) was a legendary automotive designer, racing driver, and entrepreneur. He is best known for his involvement with the Ford Motor Company, developing the AC Cobra and Mustang, which came to be known as Shelby Mustangs. Shelby had an exceptional racing career, setting 16 speed records and winning the 1959 24 Hours of Le Mans, becoming just the second American to do so. He was named Sports Illustrated’s driver of the year in 1956 and 1957. He retired from driving in 1959.

THE DAILY CHRONICLE

MONDAY, JANUARY 11, 2021

Today is Learn Your Name in Morse Code Day. On this day in 1838, Samuel Morse and Alfred Vail, the inventors of Morse code, conducted the first public demonstration of the electric telegraph in Morristown, New Jersey.

Gadgets & Gizmos

The adjustable Neck Smartphone Mount allows you to enjoy video chatting, taking selfies, or watching videos on your smartphone without having to hold it for hours. The mount is designed to hold the phone at the perfect angle and is padded at the neck for comfort.

Buy a Vowel

_ N _ M _ R _ T _

Mention things one by one

ANSWER: ENUMERATE

You Are What You Eat

Wander the streets of East and South London and you are bound to find a pie, mash, and eel shop. Pie and mash is a traditional English comfort food that was common amongst the working class of the 19th century. Minced beef wrapped in a pastry shell was served with mashed potatoes and a side of jellied eels. The dish is traditionally covered with a thin green parsley sauce known as liquor, although no kind of liquor is used as an ingredient. Often, the liquid used to make the liquor is the broth left over from boiling the eels.

Who Said So?

This accomplished children's book author and sculptor said, "The gain is not the having of children; it is the discovery of love and how to be loving."

ANSWER: Polly Berrien Berends