Each October, the town of Fairley Falls held a big celebration—
It was a yearly event anticipated with great zeal and elation.
The event committee procured 4 pumpkins, 4 pinecones, and a bale of hay;
Hilda May brought a sunflower and 6 autumn leaves to brighten the day.

2 corn snakes kept a close watch as a scarecrow was secured in place.
Lyn Jones waved 2 feathers and did a silly dance that was lacking in grace.
Lyn's husband watched and tried to hide the grin on his face,
While a moth flitted about a straw hat it had made its home base.

Morty Jones brought 4 lollipops, and 6 Smarties because he was famished,
Along with 5 raisin boxes, Tic Tacs, and 3 apples that soon vanished.
His wife, Molly, brought oatmeal cookies made with her bat cookie cutter,
Along with 3 taffy pieces and 4 ears of corn with lots of butter.

Scissors and a knife turned pumpkins into 2 jack-o'-lanterns so fine,
Thanks to the talented twins Joselyn and Jonathan Kline.
Finally, Jethro took his fiddle from its case and rosined up the bow,
Then to the eager crowd he sang, "Grab your partner and let's do-si-do!"
