

THE DAILY CHRONICLE

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 15, 2020

On This Date

1905 – Former U.S. President Grover Cleveland wrote an article for Ladies' Home Journal opposing female voters. The president said, "Sensible and responsible women do not want to vote."

1917 – Exotic dancer Mata Hari was executed by a French firing squad for being a German spy. France had been experiencing battlefield losses, and Mata Hari made a convenient scapegoat for everything that had gone wrong.

Classic Film Quiz

Q: When Alfred Hitchcock made his appearance in The Birds, what was he doing?

A: He was walking dogs.

Quote of the Day

"If you don't follow your dream, who will?"

~ Emeril Lagasse

Happy Birthday!

Emeril Lagasse, born in 1959, is the famed celebrity chef, cookbook author, and restaurateur known for saying "Kick it up a notch!" and "Bam!" while seasoning his dishes. The charismatic chef starred in the cooking shows Emeril Live and Essence of Emeril on the Food Network.

Lagasse is a Massachusetts native and specializes in his own take on Cajun and Creole cuisine, which he calls "New New Orleans" cooking. In 2003, he won a National Best Recipe Award for his "Turkey and Hot Sausage Chili." He has also won a regional James Beard Award and owns numerous restaurants, including NOLA Restaurant and BAM.