

City Walk

Summer Series

Join Ron to explore historic and beautiful places throughout Charlottetown. These free walks are open to anyone but designed for those over age 55. The walks will be at a slow to moderate pace, with stops to discuss local landmarks and history.

Stay active, have fun, connect with others, and explore some of Charlottetown's fascinating history. The walks are a Dementia Friendly environment, and every effort will be made to accommodate any special needs for participation. Join for one walk or the whole series!
