A Research Presentation by

DR. G.Y. ROBIN HSIUNG, BSc (HON), MD, MHSc, FRCPC, FACP
ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR

Dr. Robin Hsiung is a staff neurologist at CARD and Associate Professor in the Division of Neurology, Department of Medicine, UBC. He has a special interest in the genetic and clinical epidemiology of Alzheimer Disease and related neurodegenerative dementias. He is also active in translational research on neurological health and aging. Dr. Hsiung's research also explores biomarkers for Alzheimer Disease. Biomarkers are valuable to study because they are needed to confirm diagnosis and can be utilized to differentiate types of dementia and help clinicians identify cases in the earliest stages for rapid intervention and treatment.

Please mark this date on your calendar and plan to join us at this year's Annual General Meeting where you will have the opportunity to interact with staff, board members and Dr. Hsiung
