To the Members of
Alzheimer Society of B.C.

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Alzheimer Society of B.C. (the "Society"), which comprise the statement of financial position as at March 31, 2016 and the statements of revenues and expenses, changes in net assets, and cash flows for the year then ended, and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

Management's responsibility for the financial statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the Society's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Society's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our qualified audit opinion.

Basis for qualified opinion

In common with many not-for-profit organizations, the Society derives revenue from special events, the completeness of which is not always susceptible to satisfactory audit verification. We were not able to determine whether any adjustments might be necessary to certain special events revenues, excess of revenues over expenses, and cash flows from operating activities for the years ended March 31, 2016 and 2015, current assets as at March 31, 2016 and 2015, and unrestricted net assets as at April 1, 2015 and 2014 and March 31, 2016 and 2015. Our audit opinion on the financial statements for the year ended March 31, 2016 was modified accordingly because of the possible effects of this limitation in scope.

Qualified opinion

In our opinion, except for possible effects of the matter described in the Basis for qualified opinion paragraph, the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Alzheimer Society of B.C. as at March 31, 2016 and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended, in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations.

Alzheimer Society of B.C.

Notes to the Financial Statements

March 31, 2016

1. Purpose of the Society

The Alzheimer Society of B.C. (the "Society") exists to alleviate the personal and social consequences of Alzheimer's disease and related dementias, promote public awareness, and search for the causes and cures. The Society depends on public contributions as well as support for its special events to raise annually the funds necessary to continue its activities.

The Society is incorporated under the Society Act of British Columbia as a not-for-profit organization and is a registered charity under the Income Tax Act.

2. Summary of significant accounting policies

Basis of presentation

These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations.

Fund accounting and revenue recognition

The Society follows the deferral method of accounting for contributions. Contributions are recorded as revenue when received or receivable except when the donor has specified that they are intended for a specific use or a future period, in which case they are deferred and recognized in the period the related expenditures are incurred. Deferred capital contributions are amortized to revenue on a basis consistent with the amortization of the capital assets acquired. Contributions are recognized when receivable if the amount can be reasonably estimated and collection is reasonably assured. Endowment contributions and endowment interest are recognized as direct increases in net assets.

The Society maintains its accounts in accordance with the restrictions on the use of resources as designated by donors or the board of directors.

(a) Operating fund

Revenues and expenses relating to program delivery, administration and special projects are reported in the operating fund.

The Society is the named beneficiary in life insurance policies and charitable remainder trusts. Proceeds are recorded as revenue when the amounts are received.

(b) Research fund

Revenues and expenses relating to research activities are reported in the research fund. Research expenditures approved by the board of directors on an annual basis for the following year are not to exceed the funds available at the end of the current year.

Contributed services

Volunteers contribute their time each year to assist the Society in carrying out its program activities. Due to the difficulty of determining their fair value, contributed services are not recognized in these financial statements.

Alzheimer Society of B.C.

Notes to the Financial Statements

March 31, 2016

2. Summary of significant accounting policies (continued)

Non-cash donations

As part of its fund development, the Society receives non-cash donations consisting mainly of items for auctions. The fair value of these donations totals approximately $719 (2015 - $4,105). The donations have not been recognized in the statement of revenues and expenses.

Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents consists of unrestricted cash on hand and balances held with banks.

The Society has a business line of credit of $135,000 (2015 – $135,000) with its banking institution.

Property and equipment

Property and equipment are recorded at cost. Amortization is provided on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful lives of the assets as follows:

| | |
|-------------------------------|---|
| Computer and office equipment | 5 – 10 years |
| Leasehold improvements | lease period plus one renewal period, if any (5-10 years) |
| Computer software | 7 years |
| Lync Telecommunication System | 10 years |

No amortization is provided on construction in progress.

Deferred lease charges

Deferred lease charges are amortized on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

Financial instruments

The Society initially measures its financial assets and financial liabilities at fair value. The Society subsequently measures all of its financial assets and financial liabilities at amortized cost, with the exception of investments which are subsequently measured at fair value.

Financial assets measured at amortized cost include cash and receivables.

Financial assets measured at fair value include investments.

Financial liabilities measured at amortized cost include payables and accruals.

Program costs

The Society engages in support and education, advocacy, research, and fund development programs. The costs of each program include costs of personnel, rent and utilities, and other expenses that are directly related to providing these programs. The Society also incurs a number of general support expenses in its provincial office that are common to the administration of the organization and each of its programs.

Alzheimer Society of B.C.

Notes to the Financial Statements

March 31, 2016

The Society allocates certain of its general support expenditures by identifying the appropriate basis of allocating each component expense and applies that basis consistently each year. Corporate governance costs are not allocated. General support expenses such as provincial office rent and utilities, postage and courier and information technology support are allocated proportionately on the basis of number of personnel in each program area. Executive management costs are allocated proportionally on the basis of estimated time spent supporting each program.

Use of estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations requires management to make estimates and assumptions that could affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Significant areas requiring the use of management estimates relate to the determination of fair market value of non-cash donations and the determination of useful lives of property and equipment for calculating amortization. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

- providing scholarships for training in Alzheimer and related dementia care (David Macaree Memorial);
- supporting the development of materials and resources to carry out early stage support across BC (H. Clark Bentall);
- supporting research focusing on early onset Alzheimer disease (Nell Brown);
- supporting advocacy and support and education services (Grace Bowden);
- supporting the Society's general support and education services (Steve and Eva Floris); and
- supporting the Society in providing programs and services for caregivers (Theodore and Helen Bourque)

Market risk

Market risk is the potential for financial loss to the Society from changes in the values of its financial instruments due to changes in interest rates, equity prices and other price risks. The investments of the Society are subject to normal market fluctuations and to the risk inherent in investment in capital markets.

Interest rate risk

The Society's short-term investments include fixed income investments and money market funds. Fixed income investments bear fixed interest rates which reduces the future effects on earnings should interest rates change materially, while money market funds are exposed to future changes in interest rates. Interest rates are monitored to manage the risk.

Fixed income investments bear interest from 1.15% to 2.73% and mature between April 2016 and January 2017.

16. Financial instruments (continued)

Equity price risk

Equity price risk is the risk that the value of financial instruments will fluctuate due to changes in market prices. The Society is exposed to equity price risk on its investments in equity securities.

Other price risk

Other price risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of financial instruments will fluctuate because of changes in market prices, other than those arising from interest rates. All investments represent a risk of loss of capital. Investments held by the Society are susceptible to other price risk arising from uncertainties about future prices of the investments. The maximum risk resulting from the investments is determined by the fair value of their total investments. The Society actively manages market risk through its investment policy that outlines the objectives, constraints, and parameters related to its investment activities. The Finance Committee and management regularly review investments to ensure all activities adhere to the investment policy.

Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Society cannot meet a demand for cash or fund its obligations as they come due. Maximum exposure to liquidity risk is $345,300 (2015 - $590,786), which is due to be paid in full before March 31, 2017.

Liquidity risk is managed by investing the majority of the Society's assets in investments that are traded in an active market and can be readily liquidated. In addition, the Society retains sufficient cash positions to maintain liquidity.

Credit risk

The Society is exposed to the risk that the counterparty defaults or becomes insolvent. Financial instruments that potentially subject the Society to concentrations of credit risk are receivables. Investments in pooled funds that hold debt securities are also exposed to such risks. The Society limits the credit risk of investments in money market funds and bond funds by adhering to the investment policy in place which limits exposure to such investments. The maximum exposure to credit risk in terms of receivables is $129,191 (2015 - $65,565).

The Society manages credit risk on receivables by monitoring debtor balances on a month to month basis by the Finance Committee and management.
