

2019 Request for Applications: ASRP/FRQS Training Awards

1. Program Objective

The purpose of this program is to support a new generation of doctoral and postdoctoral researchers in the field of Alzheimer’s disease and other dementias who wish to pursue their fellowship training in Quebec.

2. Mechanisms of Support

The funding partners Fonds de recherche du Québec - Santé (FRQS) and the Alzheimer Society Research Program (ASRP) will support prestigious Doctoral and Postdoctoral Research Training Awards for outstanding individuals who wish to continue their research training in the field of Alzheimer’s disease in Quebec. Applicants must apply to both the ASRP and the FRQS research competitions and must select “ASRP/FRQS Award” on the application form, in order to be considered for funding within this program.

The funding partners will provide up to 4 ASRP-FRQS Awards:

- For doctoral applicants, $22,000 per year, granted for a maximum of 3 years
- For postdoctoral fellows, $41,500 per year for those with a PhD and $51,500 per year for those with an MD, granted for a maximum of 2 years

3. Program Eligibility

Doctoral candidates must be within the first 18 months of their PhD program.

Postdoctoral fellowship candidates must be within the first 18 months of obtaining their PhDs.

Further requirements can be found within the ASRP Application Guidelines.

4. Applications

Applications to the program must be submitted by November 9, 2018 to ASC, using the online portal <https://asc.myreviewroom.com/> and to FRQS by October 15, 2018 (full text program available at: www.frqs.gouv.qc.ca/en/bourses-et-subventions/consulter-les-programmes-remplir-une-demande?program=0&group=all&page=4&sort=prog-asc)

Applications to this program will automatically be considered for funding within the ASRP’s concurrent research competition.
